

Trail

Girl in a Coma

Worry, why you always worry?
You have so many problems
that's why we're in a hurry.

I'm alright for now
I'll just never sleep again
but in the day.
But in the day.

In silence I live. In silence I.

Smile, smile although I know there are no perfect pictures only fruitless figures.

Your condescending stare at life scares chance away.
But who will try? And not pass by.

In silence I live. In silence I live.

You'll be ok if say to me,
So I'll take all the push and the first mistakes I wrap my arms around those who try to escape.
You'll be ok if you stay away.

Oh there is a distance I am traveling alone it seems while all are watching.
Please don't grab me for I am carefully hiding my trail,
trail.
