

watch you sleep

girl in red

The morning sun
Shines on your skin
'Cause your white curtains
They are paper thin
Windows open
I can feel the breeze
But we're safe here
Under the sheets

I don't ever wanna leave
I'll watch you sleep
And listen to you breathe
I don't ever wanna leave
I'll watch you sleep
I'll watch you sleep

I never get
Bored of looking at you
'Cause every time
I see something new
Like the scar on your spine
You fell off a roof
When you were nine
You've lived a life
Before me

I don't ever wanna leave
I'll watch you sleep
And listen to you breathe
I don't ever wanna leave
I'll watch you sleep
I'll watch you sleep

(I don't ever wanna leave
I'll watch you sleep
I'll watch you sleep
I don't ever wanna leave
I'll watch you sleep
I'll watch you sleep)
