

GARBAGE

Girlfriends

They must of made you at the psych ward
Why are you the one I'd die for?
It's like I'm walking on a tight rope
And every night you're at my throat

Cause you turn my dreams into nightmares

(Hey hey hey)
Throw my heart in the garbage
(Hey hey hey)
Look at what you started

Cause every little thing you do
Keeps me coming back to you

(Hey hey hey)
It's a pity party
(Hey hey hey)
And you can't say sorry
For everything you put me through
(Hey hey hey)
Throw my heart in the garbage

I'm just your dirty little secret
Why do I love the things I regret?
You're only ugly on the inside
And that's something that you can't hide

Cause you turn my dreams into nightmares
And it's not fair

(Hey hey hey)
Throw my heart in the garbage
(Hey hey hey)
Look at what you started

Cause every little thing you do
Keeps me coming back to you

(Hey hey hey)
It's a pity party
(Hey hey hey)
And you can't say sorry
For everything you put me through
(Hey hey hey)
Throw my heart in the garbage

Throw my heart in the garbage
Look at what you started
Cause every little thing you do
Keeps me coming back to you

(Hey hey hey)
Throw my heart in the garbage
(Hey hey hey)
Look at what you started

Cause every little thing you do
Keeps me coming back

(Hey hey hey)
It's a pity party
(Hey hey hey)
And you can't say sorry
For everything you put me through
(Hey hey hey)
Throw my heart in the garbage
