

2 Year Itch

GIRLI

Things are getting too comfortable, and I don't like a love that's easy
I'm always running when the shit gets real, I guess that's my history
How do I know what's best for me? I never wanted to be lonely
I like to sabotage I take the wheel, and drive you away from me

I crave a fresher face
Different name
Newer places
Higher plane
The feeling of
A stranger
'Bout to kiss ya
That you can't sustain
Second dates
Wicked games
Spin the bottle
Walk of shame
Fly towards the danger

Like a moth into a brighter flame
I'm your dream girl for life, until I go and make you hate me
They say you get a 7 year itch but, I'm five years too early
I play up to the make believe, a fairytale of what we could be
But sparkles lose their shine in no time
I'll take this pumpkin right back to mine

For a fresher face

Like a moth into a brighter flame
I'm terrified of the words
I'm terrified of forever
What if by being yours I lose being free
I'm scared you'll break down my walls
I'm terrified I'll be happy
What if by being yours I lose being me

I crave a fresher face

Give me a voice I know
Hold me close
Promise that you'll never go
I never thought a body
Could be something
I would call a home
Pajama days
Take aways
I think this time I'm gonna stay
'Cause suddenly I'm not afraid to tell you that I love you babe
