

Kind Of Stuck

GIRLI

Living in my mind gets old
It's an effort just to stay afloat
I know it could be worse, I suppose
But, being me, it takes its toll

Oh my, my, my, my mind map says
That everything in my life's meant
Still I'm just tryna understand
Why I'm feeling so depressed, oh

'Cause I've been taking all my vitamins
And I've been staying sober
I guess I'm happiness-intolerant
I'm a walking side-effect
Hey, hey, yeah!

All my plans are going out the window
Like my life is just another limbo
Know I'll get better
Just gimme a minute
I'm just kind of
Stuck inside this shitty little bedroom
Thinking 'bout the lives I could be living
Know I'll get better
Just gimme a minute
I'm just kind of stuck

It's really difficult for me to explain
I'm just trying not to crash this plane
I'm guessing what these buttons do
Pretending like I have a clue
It's like everybody's figured out
What they like and what their life's about

But I've been taking all my vitamins
What the fuck is up with this?!
Hey, hey, yeah!

All my plans are going out the window
Like my life is just another limbo
Know I'll get better
Just gimme a minute
I'm just kind of
Stuck inside this shitty little bedroom
Thinking 'bout the lives I could be living
Know I'll get better
Just gimme a minute
I'm just kind of stuck
Ooh, kind of stuck
Ooh
I'm just kind of stuck
Ooh, kind of stuck
Ooh

All my plans are going out the window

Just gimme a minute
I'm just kind of
Just gimme a minute
I'm just kind of stuck
Ooh
I'm just kind of stuck
Ooh, kind of stuck
Ooh
I'm kind of stuck
