

Unlearn Me

Girlicious

I've been fading and lately
I haven't quite been myself
You ain't been around
And I can't find no one else
All the things that felt wrong
With you I'm starting to learn
Now I'm staring at pictures I can't get enough
Unlearn me,
And turn me back to the girl
That used to love you
Unmake me and take me,
back cause I need you,
I gotta see you again

Unlearn me And turn me back to that girl
Unlearn me
I was so vague, insecure
I was all of the above
But you came always sure
About what your thinking about
Now I'm holding your sweater
In the rain nothing better
Than the scent of your cologne
When you coming home
Unlearn me,
And turn me back to the girl
That used to love you
Unmake me and take me,
back cause I need you,
I gotta see you again

Unlearn me And turn me back to that girl
Unlearn learn me
The truth is I'm so weary
And I mess it up cause I'm silly
And I'm trying I'm trying I'm asking you

Unlearn me Baby unlearn me
Unlearn me I'm crying out unlearn me
Unlearn me, and turn me back..
Ohhhh ohhh wooahh
Unmake me, and take me back..
Take me back
