

Afterlife

Girlpool

I've got no tricks
I just give you my body
Tell me a lie
You'll disguise as a story
I won't tell you shit
Nothing more to say
I hide monsters in my head everyday
I hide monsters in my head everyday

I've got no dreams
Nothing left to believe in
Nothing to grieve
As I stare at the ceiling
You're the weight of god
And the antichrist
Wonder what I'll hear them say
As the rumors fly
Wonder what I'll hear them say
In the afterlife

I know that the devil sleeps
'Cause he sleeps with me
I hear him whispering even in my dreams
I know the devil sleeps
'Cause he sleeps with me
I hear him whispering even in my dreams

I've got no tricks
I just give you my body
Recite the lines
That you learned to disarm me
I won't tell you shit
Am I supposed to say
"I hide monsters in my head everyday"?
I hide monsters in my head everyday
I hide monsters in my head everyday
I hide monsters in my head everyday
