

Corner Store

Girlpool

I get lost at the corner store
I'm picking up things I've never seen before

Napping on a plastic coated living room
In every picture frame a picture of you

I wanna be a puzzle super glue into you
I'm falling off the table
I get stuck on the things I see
I've had crumbs in a bag in my pocket all week
You got lost at the corner store
Picking up things you've never seen before
