

Baby got what he wanted all along
Baby got all my lovin' and a song
Piece of work, I'm a world away
I count the ways that you'll never change
Close my eyes, make my dreams so real
I don't remember anything I felt, ah
What's love? Life's a fraction of
All the things that I felt from drugs (Ah)

There's a haze over my eyes
I wonder if there's any truth sometimes
I was lookin' at somethin' that looked just like love
I was lookin' at somethin' that looked just like love
I was lookin' at somethin' that looked just like love
I was lookin' at somethin' that looked just like love

God, I'm lost in that sunken, holy place
Sold my soul to someone that I could replace
I close my eyes 'cause my dreams are real
I can't remember anythin' that's left

I don't wanna feel this yet
Somethin' more real than I'd expect (Ah)
What's the point? There's no peace of mind
That's the truth I don't wanna find (Ah)

There's a haze over my eyes
I wonder if there's any truth sometimes
I was lookin' at somethin' that looked just like love
I was lookin' at somethin' that looked just like love
I was lookin' at somethin' that looked just like love
I was lookin' at somethin' that looked just like love
