

Powerplant

Girlpool

Hold onto the hand so you can stick to the plan
A game in the pool making space out of rules
And when you get out all wet you're gonna think about them

Working by the powerplant jonathan's a ladder
Watching all the billboards change into
A mirror image of his lifted thought

She's like a shelf the way she looks at the wall
A stock market dance while the poetry falls

Working by the powerplant jonathan's a ladder
A mirror image of his lifted thought
