We should really love again

I know, I knew it
Your heart that got cold
I just didn't want to believe it
It hurt, it did hurt
It hurt too much to acknowledge it

Save me save me
It was good, we were happy
Hold my shaking hands
You used to love me and now I'm struggling

But there's no answer from you
Don't leave me

So baby
Don't say goodbye
Don't say those words so easily

Don't say goodbye
Don't do this, come back, love again
I can't believe this, love again

So baby
Don't say goodbye
Turn things back to the beginning
Don't say goodbye
What do I do without you? Love again
I'm not confident, love again

I'm trying to smile
Because I'm afraid if I cry
Our break up will really come
I'm sorry, it's my fault
Words that spill out of the crack of my lips

You feel the same way
You're sad too, please? I'm right
Smile and hug me
I can't breathe
Please save me

Don't say those words
Don't leave me

So baby
Don't say goodbye
Don't say those words so easily
Don't say goodbye
Don't do this, come back, love again
I can't believe this, love again

So baby
Don't say goodbye
Turn things back to the beginning
Don't say goodbye
What do I do without you? Love again
I'm not confident, love again

I can't hear anything
I'm only blankly looking at you
It's like I'm hallucinating
Only your voice lingers

At your once sweet words
I wanted to fall for it
Tears fall
At my stupidity

So baby
Don't say goodbye
Don't avoid me, look at me
Don't say goodbye
Don't do this, come back, love again

So baby
Don't say goodbye
It was only you for me
Don't say goodbye
What do I do without you? Love again
I'm not confident, love again
