For some reason, today feels difficult and exhausting
I hold my pillow closer as I sit alone in my room
I fidget with my phone as my heart
For some reason feels empty today

The suddenly ringing phone surprises me
I hear your voice, asking me if I ate today
Those words that annoyed me, feel different today
And I remember all the forgotten promises I've made

I will become a warm hearted person
I will become a person that puts others first
I will fulfill the wishes of your love
The person I share my dreams with
The one who used to comb my hair
I think of my mom

Sometimes I hurt you because of my wrong decisions
But you quietly watched over me from afar
Although I'm still a young and clumsy child, I think
That now I understand the meaning of your silent prayers

I will become a warm hearted person
I will become a person that puts others first
I will fulfill the wishes of your love
The person I share my dreams with
The one who used to comb my hair
I think of my mom

What should I do? My heart is still so small
If I let go of your hand, I'm not sure if I can make it
I don't think I'm ready yet, I'm scared

I will become a wise daughter
(Give me courage)
I will be a daughter you can be proud of (You've been there for me)
I will fulfill the wishes of your love
With all the love that you have shown me
I will have a warm heart

I was too shy to express it
Mom, I truly love you
