It is weird, my mind is complicated (All night long)
I need stronger coffee (Black and strong)
In fact, as weird it is I keep thinking about you (Why)
I mean, you are not a special guy
Why why am I dazing
No way, do I like you
Dadadada I don't get myself

That I, a self-respecting person, have changed
Don't tease me about that
I am running like express
It's dangerous
I'm getting curious about you, the person in front of me
Holding this feeling right now
I will run, no excuse
Oh oh ah riding on an express

It is weird, my mind is complicated (All night long)
I need stronger coffee (Black and strong)
When I look at someone similar I think about you (Why)
I mean, you are not a special guy

It is a bit funny if it's destiny
I admit the tingle

Dadadada I don't get myself

That I, a self-respecting person, have changed
Don't tease me about that
I am running like express
It's dangerous
I'm getting curious about you, the person in front of me
Holding this feeling right now
I will run, no excuse

I am getting anxious, the world becomes different
All because of you
The train has whistled, let's go
I want to go faster

That I, a self-respecting person, have changed
Don't tease me about that
I am running like express
It's dangerous
I'm getting curious about you, the person in front of me
Holding this feeling right now
I will run, no excuse
Oh oh ah riding on an express
