

Running for Cover

Girlschool

Well you can say what you want
And you can do what you please
I don't care where you are
Just don't come around to me

You know it hurt at the start
But now I found me again
Another world apart
I won't lose, I won't lose again

Running for cover
Running away from you
Running for cover
Running away from you

You say the pain doesn't grow
But the hurt doesn't show
You know it's tearing me apart
That cover lies in the past

Running for cover
Running away from you
Running for cover
Running away from you

My love, my dream
My love is everything
My love, a fool's desire
I won't lose again

Running for cover
Running away from you
Running for cover
Running away from you
