

I CAN TELL

Giveon

Looking at me while you walk away
Thinking all the things you didn't say
And I ain't gotta read your mind
I can see it in your eyes
I read between the lines
And I know we're on the same page

You don't know me now
But I can see the truth, girl
I see me and you, girl, oh

I can tell
Never had nobody talk you through it like I talk you through it
I can tell
Everything he taught you, it ain't nothing to me, I can prove it
I can tell
That he don't wanna let you go
And you don't wanna let him know
Your heart ain't really in it lately
Oh, baby
I can tell

I'll admit it I'm a bit impatient
If you let me, I'ma take his place, yeah
The message written on your face
Yeah, yeah
Tell me where you're going
Tell me: is it his or mine?
Tell me when you pick a side
Gotta funny way of knowing
How to keep you on my mind
I can see it in your eyes
That

You don't know me now
But I can see the truth, girl
I see me and you, girl, oh

I can tell
Never had nobody talk you through it like I talk you through it
I can tell
Everything he taught you, it ain't nothing to me, I can prove it
I can tell
That he don't wanna let you go
And you don't wanna let him know
Your heart ain't really in it, girl

I can tell
Never had nobody talk you through it like I talk you through it
I can tell
Everything he taught you, it ain't nothing to me, I can prove it
I can tell
Oh, baby
I can tell
