

RATHER BE

Giveon

Rather be a fool than to start with something new (Start with something new)

Crying hardly does it anymore

Can't drink away the pain anymore, oh

Oh, I'd rather

I'd rather be a fool than believe in someone new

I'd rather be with you than the other half of someone who's

Not even half of you

Oh-oh

Yeah

Oh-oh-oh

Now I'm in this room

Wishing you would settle down or come around

I've been dancing to all the songs that you love, all alone

Lost in the dark, 'cause you stole the sun

Oh-oh-oh

Oh, tears are forming

When I see your face in my phone, I can't erase the memory

Counting all the ways she ain't right for me

I'll take your mistakes over missing you always

Am I out of place?

I'm here when I'm supposed to leave

Oh, I'm telling you

I'd rather be a fool than believe in someone new

I'd rather be with you than the other half of someone who's

Not even half of you

Oh-oh

Yeah

Oh-oh-oh
