

Balloons

Gjon's Tears

Fine time to say goodbye
Feels like we're in the past
No one asked for love
No one touched the sky
And I don't know, I'm tired
A thousand times I tried to love you
Memories are covered by ash
We're lost in the flames

And I don't know, I'm tired
A thousand times I tried to lose you
Even though I could count on you
Burning nightmares, we're lost in the flames

All the time I thought I could stay with you
Always in the clouds I looked up for you
[?] that pulled it through
'Cause I lied to you, I lied to you
All the time I thought I could stay with you
Always in the clouds I looked up for you
Leaving you [?] bulletproof
'Cause I lied to you, I lied to you

My head is an old graveyard
Where unearthed words still hold me
Will I be freed from all those thoughts?
Will my cursed love be repeated again and again and again and a gain?

All the time I thought I could stay with you
Always in the clouds I looked up for you
[?] that pulled it through
'Cause I lied to you, I lied to you
All the time I thought I could stay with you
Always in the clouds I looked up for you
Leaving you [?] bulletproof
'Cause I lied to you, I lied to you
