

Too Far Gone

Glades

Yeah are we on tonight?
Am I going crazy, am I falling right?
I'm picking up the pieces from the other night
You left me in the dark, and didn't tell me why
Tell me are we too far gone tonight?
Sending all these texts and getting no reply
How am I s'posed to know if you still wanna try
I don't wanna be a girl who wastes her time
So tell me are we too far gone

Monday you came over too late
Said you love me straight to my face
Kissed me, ditched me, said you need space
Got me thinking are we too far gone

Usually these fights, they don't last
We got good at fixing our past
But this time, we did things we couldn't take back
Can we save this? Are we too far gone?

Yeah are we on tonight?
Am I going crazy, am I falling right?
I'm picking up the pieces from the other night
You left me in the dark, and didn't tell me why
Tell me are we too far gone tonight?
Sending all these texts and getting no reply
How am I s'posed to know if you still wanna try
I don't wanna be a girl who wastes her time
So tell me are we too far gone

Are you scared for us to be good?
I'm just scared we're knocking on wood
Guess I never knew where we stood
Still not saying if we're too far gone

Typing out my feelings, so that you know where my head's at
Hoping you appreciate that you're still where my heart's at
All I'm saying is just hit me back
Hit me back

Yeah are we on tonight?
Am I going crazy, am I falling right?
I'm picking up the pieces from the other night
You left me in the dark, and didn't tell me why
Tell me are we too far gone tonight?
Sending all these texts and getting no reply
How am I s'posed to know if you still wanna try
I don't wanna be a girl who wastes her time
So tell me are we too far gone

Oh can you tell me are we too far gone?
Can you tell me are we too far gone?

Typing out my feelings, so that you know where my head's at
Hoping you appreciate that you're still where my heart's at
All I'm saying is just hit me back
Hit me back

Yeah are we on tonight?
Am I going crazy, am I falling right?
I'm picking up the pieces from the other night
You left me in the dark, and didn't tell me why
Tell me are we too far gone tonight?
Sending all these texts and getting no reply
How am I s'posed to know if you still wanna try
I don't wanna be a girl who wastes her time
So tell me are we too far gone
