Glades

Eenie miney mo
Where's she gonna go?
You can never know
Falling like a domino
Not again
Dizzy in your head
There's no antidote
For this vertigo

Looking like she got no time for
Everybody knows of her
Moving through crowds like cobra
Turning heads like she Oprah
She'll get your wallet on empty
Options she got plenty
When she get a hold she deadly
But only moves when she ready

Right left
Where she go
They be blessed
East west
They all come to confess
But before you know
You're exactly where she wants
And then she starts to run

Eenie miney mo
Where's she gonna go?
You can never know
Falling like a domino
Not again
Dizzy in your head
There's no antidote
For this vertigo

For this vertigo

Funny she ain't even sorry
Breaking hearts like it's a hobby
Play with you like you a barbie
Then run away like a tsunami
She making you believe she your girlfriend
But she doing the same thing to your best friend
Tongue split in two like a serpent
Off you as soon as she's on him

Where she go
They be blessed

East west
They all come to confess
But before you know
