

And what about a friend?

Gladiator

The season's coming into boredom
When no one knows where ends the wall
When no one can find the right dose
I feel so crystal and unbored

And what about a friend?
And what about a friend?
And not just one!

Try the risk let's try it both
We can try the danger zone
Now I don't want to feel your lazy bones
I feel so crystal and unbored

Don't be afraid I have no gun
Fill me with anything you want
I see a man running to blossomed door
I feel so crystal and unbored
