

Do You Love Me Just A Little, Honey

Gladys Knight

(Honey)

Do you love me just a little, honey?
My uncertain heart has to know, oh, oh
So remove this doubt
Before it's too late
Tell me should I go
Or should I stay?
Honey, honey, honey

Do you care a little for me, sweetheart?
Or do you plan for us to part?
Tell me now
Before I let myself go
Do you love me?
I've just got to know
Honey, honey, honey, honey

Oh love, yeah, can be a merry, merry splendid thing
Oh what joy, oh what joy true love can bring
And because I want a love that's real
I've got to know just how you feel
Honey, honey, honey, honey

So tell me should I get ready for a heartbreak?
Cause I'll suffer more if I have to wait
For you to tell me, that I'm loving you in vain
And if I love you I have nothing to gain
Honey, honey, honey, honey
Do you love me just a sweet thing?
