

How Can You Say That Ain't Love

Gladys Knight

If I could be reborn
Once again, honey, I would choose you
It's not enough to love you one lifetime
With you I think I would need at least two

So how, how can you say that
I don't love you, I don't love you, honey
How can, how can you say
That that ain't love

People rave of the world's natural wonders
I do, too, every time
I look upon your face, uh huh
I can't think
I can't think of any other wonder
Next to you they erase to last place
Now come and say

So how, how can you say that
I don't love you, I don't love you, honey
How can, how can you say
That that ain't love
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

Well do you think now
If you think that I don't really love you
Then why, oh why, oh why
Do I bother to stay
Just to play, to play the part of a loser
Can't my heart
Find a smarter role to play
I'd like to hear you say

So how, how can you say that
I don't love you, I don't love you, honey
How can, how can you say
That that ain't love
