

I Wanna Be Loved

Gladys Knight

Why do I feel like my heart gets broken,
Whenever I surrender my emotions
I thought that I could tell you how I feel
Whether good or bad, when I'm happy or sad, oh&

Why do I have to be the silent one,
Whenever there is something on my mind
I thought that we were partners in this game of love
Why can't I laugh or cry and share my feelings deep inside&

I wanna be loved by somebody who's strong enough for me
I wanna be free with my feelings that's the way it's supposed to be
I'm willing to share my emotions and give you what you need
Just don't turn away if I say that I just wanna be me&

Why am I questioning where you are
It's just because I've made a few demands
Remember all the times we cried and I dried your tears
And how I held your hand, if you do please understand&

I wanna be loved by somebody who's strong enough for me
I wanna be free with my feelings that's the way it's supposed to be
I'm willing to share my emotions and give you what you need
Just don't turn away if I say that I just wanna be me&

I wanna cry tears of joy and not of pain
I want to share things that words cannot explain
I don't wanna go I just need for you to know
That my love is sweet but strong
But keep on holding on&

'Cause I wanna be loved by somebody who's strong enough for me
You see I wanna be free I wanna be me that's the way it's supposed to be
I'm willing to share my emotions and give you what you need
Just don't turn away if I say that I just wanna be me&

Just don't turn away if I say that I just wanna be me&

Just don't turn away if I say that I just wanna be me&
