

Midnight Train From Zamunda

Gladys Knight

He's leaving
Oh, oh, oh, oh
He's leaving
Oh, yes, he is, yeah
He's leaving (Leaving)
On that midnight train from Zamunda
(Leaving on the midnight train) Yes, he is
Said he's going up (Up, up, up, up)
Going up to that great Sahara in the sky (You know he takes that pride)
Oh, yes, he is (Our great ancestors will be smiling wide)
Oh, please, don't leave us (Take us instead)
Take us on that midnight train from Zamunda
(Take us on the midnight train from Zamunda) Ooh
'Cause this nation's only hope (This ruler of this land)
Is a son who can have a son of his own
(What's even the point? There's not even a point)
Say it, say it, say it
