2009

Glaive

And my whole world gray, living monochromatic
And my ex girl say that I'm overdramatic
And there's like fifteen years of memories in this mattress
You're like a bucket of water, I'm like a package of matchstick
s
Everything in life started gettin' a bit much
Left town, see you 'round, sinking feeling in my gut
That sound, too loud, but I cannot get enough
We all die, it's human nature, baby, live it while we young

And I'ma fuck up every single thing in my life
And I'm still stuck on my shit from like 2009
And we're still young, dumb, broke and wasting all of our time
And now my luck's up, baby, I'm just taking what's mine
And I'ma fuck up every single thing in my life
And I'm still stuck on my shit from like 2009
And we're still young, dumb, broke and wasting all of our time
And now my luck's up, baby, I'm just taking what's mine

There's always trouble in paradise
There's always trouble where I reside
There's always trouble that I seem to find
But I've been doing great, so I don't seem to mind
Slam my head against the wall
'Til I cannot feel at all
Your whole life got changed by like one damn call
Your brother's lying dead, your dad is in withdrawal (So I)

Fuck up every single thing in my life
And I'm still stuck on my shit from like 2009
And we're still young, dumb, broke and wasting all of our time
And now my luck's up, baby, I'm just taking what's mine
And I'ma fuck up every single thing in my life
And I'm still stuck on my shit from like 2009
And we're still young, dumb, broke and wasting all of our time
And now my luck's up, baby, I'm just taking what's mine
