Glaive

And I made a lot of promises, yeah, I know I broke 'em
I've always been a shitty fucking person and it broke us
I didn't really mean it, please tell your best friends to grow
Now she ask me how I'm doing 'cause she saw me start to go up

They say, "Ignorance is bliss"
'Til you find out that you're ignorant as shit
I've been trying so hard to get a grip
Grey matter, yeah, my mind is full of it
They say, "Ignorance is bliss"
'Til you find out that you're ignorant as shit
I've been trying so hard to get a grip
Grey matter, yeah, my mind is full of it

(Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Wish you'd run away 'cause there's a beast inside the backrooms
He gets you when you're stuck and think you're safe inside a black room
You hear him creepy crawling and a fist starts to grab you
All the pain inside my chest starts to feel like a stab wound

Run away, run away
Working out your hours and you're underpaid
Yeah, it's underway
How I got so many problems and I'm underage
I've been trying really hard to get a fucking break

They say, "Ignorance is bliss"
'Til you find out that you're ignorant as shit
I've been trying so hard to get a grip
Grey matter, yeah, my mind is full of it
They say, "Ignorance is bliss"
'Til you find out that you're ignorant as shit
I've been trying so hard to get a grip
Grey matter, yeah, my mind is full of it
