

I'm like Icarus, not trying to increase the dissonance between you and your father
I know it's not my business, but I just keep on calling
I know that you're indifferent, but I can't help from falling (One two three four one two three four)

We're flying too close to the sun
(Too close)
And it's been fun
She point at me like I'm the one
Looking for houses like were spouses
We're flying too close to the sun
(Too close)
You call me love, you probably say that to everyone
She checking me not texting me
We're flying too close to the sun

I feel like Sisyphus
Because my antithesis
Is pushing things to work and have them fall back on me again
And I can't take it
She must think I'm famous
She must think I'm brainless
Everyday ignoramus
It's never ending story
Call me then ignore me
I hate it, hate it, hate it, but I'd do it all again

I'm setting fire to my room
'Cause I don't know what else to do
It's getting hot in here because-

We're flying too close to the sun
(Too close)
And it's been fun
She point at me like I'm the one
Looking for houses like were spouses
We're flying too close to the sun
(Too close)
You call me love you probably say that to everyone
She checking me not texting me
We're flying too close to the sun
