(I see sound, like it's outside of me)
(I think it's better now, when we wake up just friends)
(Just friends again)

In all honesty, I should not have come here, no, not at all
I act confident, but in all honesty, I find myself way happier
at home

I'm getting nervous at the function again

Girl, what the fuck?

'Cause, girl, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
That I've made a couple songs, they played a couple songs ago

Please don't say you think it's cute how I get nervous
