

Nobodys Fault / Accept My Own

Glaive

Break the palisades, storm the palace gates
I'm alone again, I'm alone again
They breached the walls, we had it all
I knew it then, I had to go
As I withdraw, I pray to God, I should've never got involved

The swords are drawn, they really are
It's no one's fault except my own

Fuck, huh, I don't know (It's nobody's fault)
Except my own
You never did me wrong
Except that one time though
I'm off a pill right now
They damn near killed me, huh?
The swords are drawn, they really are
It's no one's fault except my- (It's nobody's fault)

Except my own, own (Boing)
Own, own

Mm-mm-mm
Soldiers standing in a car, everybody's getting off
Hallelujah, I was told that the love we had holds (Mm-mm-mm)
I made the bed, I know
Thirty-thousand dollar t-shirt, I still think I'ma die in it though
I pay no mind to it though
My mom wanted daughters, her firstborn son is so awfully close
It's her fault, I suppose
Know that I do it, do it all for the bros

The swords are drawn, they really are
It's no one's fault except my own

Fuck, huh, I don't know (It's nobody's fault)
Except my own
You never did me wrong
Except that one time though
I'm off a pill right now
They damn near killed me, huh?
The swords are drawn, they really are
It's no one's fault except my- (It's nobody's fault)

Except my own, own (Boing)
Own, own
Own, own
(It's nobody's fault)
