

the car

Glaive

I was standing in the dark, and I'm hoping that you saw me
Now we're fucking in his car, are you ever gonna call him back?
Tell him he's the best you've ever had
I think that I should go
I think that I should go

Now we're fucking in his car, and you're telling me that I'm all that Calling me the best you've ever had
I think that I should go
I think that I should go

Say you're finding yourself if that's what you call it
Doing ket on a Wednesday
We're both going to hell if we're being honest
He must know there's something happening

Heard you say that "He just won't get it"
I won't assume, I've got an inhibition
He must know there's something happening
He must know there's something happening

I was standing in the dark, and thank god nobody saw me
Now we're fucking in his car, are you ever gonna call him back?
Tell him he's the best you've ever had
I think that I should go
I think that I should go

Now we're fucking in his car, and you're telling me that I'm all that
Calling me the best you've ever had
I think that I should go
I think that I should go

And I'd be lying to your face
If I said I didn't feel for him
He's doing way more than I did for ya
He must know there's something happening
I bet he doesn't know the half it

Oh good god, now you want him back?
What the fuck was I? What the fuck is that?
Father always said, father always said
That you can't miss what you never had

I was standing in the dark, and I'm hoping that you saw me
Now we're fucking in his car, are you ever gonna call him back?
Tell him he's the best you've ever had
I think that I should go
I think that I should go

Now we're fucking in his car, and you're telling me that I'm all that Calling me the best you've ever had
I think that I should go
I think that I should go
