glass beach

Some stray cat came through the backyard
Must have climbed up some fences

You'll pick him off the ground
And you'll hold him in your arms
And you'll kiss him on the head
And you'll tell him he's a lucky boy

You'll pick him off the ground
And you'll hold him in your arms
And you'll kiss him on the head
And you'll tell him he's a lucky little

Calico

You're not gonna leave him alone
You're not gonna leave him alone
You're not gonna leave him alone
You're not gonna leave him alone
