

Ashtrays

Glass Tides

I wasn't ready for this
I didn't see you coming
But now I'm all but hopeless
And you left me broken

Every step that you took I ran and
Every lie that you spoke
I heard the truth
Late nights when you smelled like ashtrays
Telling me we're all confused
I was all hung up on you

I wasn't ready for this
I didn't see you coming
But now I'm all but hopeless
And you left me broken
And you left me broken

Distance was growing between us
I didn't always feel like the only one
That didn't seem to change a damn thing
It didn't change a damn thing

I wasn't ready for this
I didn't see you coming
But now I'm all but hopeless
And you left me broken
I was falling for you
I was falling for you

I wasn't ready for this
I didn't see you coming
But now I'm all but hopeless
And you left me broken

I was falling for you
I was falling for you
I was falling for you
I was falling for you

I wasn't ready for this
