

Breaking Down

Glass Tides

I believe it's all or nothing
To give myself a chance to feel alive

No matter what I say
It never mattered anyway
It's all in vain
And I'm just here to play

I'm breaking down
What's the point of it?
Living a mess
I'm feeling the stress
It's time to get out
Falling underneath
It's passing me by
I'm losing my mind
I'm out of time
These feelings
All I'm missing
Living a mess
I'm feeling the stress
Passing me by
I'm losing my mind
I'm out of time
(I'm out of time)

Screaming out, can you not hear me?
It's all inside my head, it's such a shame

No matter what I say
It never mattered anyway
Your voice so loud
I can't find my place

I'm breaking down
What's the point of it?
Living a mess
I'm feeling the stress
It's time to get out
Falling underneath
It's passing me by
I'm losing my mind
I'm out of time
These feelings
All I'm missing
Living a mess
I'm feeling the stress
Passing me by
I'm losing my mind
I'm out of time
(I'm out of time)

SHUT UP

I'm breaking down
What's the point of it?

I'm breaking down
What's the point of it? (What's the point of it?)
Living a mess
I'm feeling the stress
It's time to get out
Falling underneath (Falling underneath)
It's passing me by
I'm losing my mind
I'm out of time
These feelings
All I'm missing
Living a mess
I'm feeling the stress
Passing me by
I'm losing my mind
I'm out of time
(I'm out of time)
