

Deliberate

Glass Tides

I'm just, holding on for a better way
Thinking the world is never gonna change
I'm bored to death and I'm sick of it
Placed in a box felt deliberate

Isolated, seeing the world go by, I'm Contemplating, what I've done with my life
Staying in bed all god damn day
I sleep and I binge and I wait for a change
But I point to myself and try to pass the blame

I'm just, holding on for a better way
Thinking the world is never gonna change
I'm bored to death and I'm sick of it
Placed in a box felt deliberate

I'm the one to blame
You're the one to blame

Irritated
Un-motivated
I'm aggravated
Being regulated

I'm just, holding on for a better way
Thinking the world is never gonna change
I'm bored to death and I'm sick of it
Placed in a box felt deliberate

I'm the one to blame
You're the one to blame

I'm losing my mind
I'm wasting my time
I'm facing the truth
I'm falling right through

I'm just, holding on for a better way
Thinking the world is never gonna change
I'm bored to death and I'm sick of it
Placed in a box felt deliberate

Holding on for a better way
Thinking the world is never gonna change
I'm bored to death and I'm sick of it
Placed in a box felt deliberate
