

My disguise, full of lies
My intentions to break down what's already mine
In between, just a dream
Fade to black I'm surrounded by what I can't see

Watch me dissolve
I keeping on falling in places I've never been Disappearing
Losing my grasp on reality
There's no clarity
Watch me dissolve
Into nothing
Watch me dissolve

Where's the end? Is it real?
Am I thinking to far into things I can't feel?
Waste my time, pass me by
Take it in just to watch it repeating again

Watch me dissolve
Watch me dissolve
I keeping on falling in places I've never been Disappearing
Losing my grasp on reality
There's no clarity
Watch me dissolve
Into nothing
Watch me dissolve
(Dissolve, dissolve, dissolve, dissolve...)

I keeping on falling in places I've never been Disappearing
Losing my grasp on reality
There's no clarity

I keeping on falling in places I've never been Disappearing
Losing my grasp on reality
There's no clarity
Watch me dissolve
Into nothing
Watch me dissolve
