

Empty Thoughts

Glass Tides

I regret
Giving you a piece of myself
I don't want you in my head
You're a mess
Hollow hearted, empty minded
I don't want, your regret

Don't try to fix me
I'm already broken
Don't say you miss me
You've already fallen
Fallen for someone else

Empty thoughts
Fill my head without a reason
Let me in, let me out
Searching for something
But I can't feel nothing
Let me in, let me out

I'm going under

No I can't describe the feeling
Pieces fall apart no reasons
Same old games that mess me up
Confused alone and all fucked up

I can't seem to find the point in this
You took apart of me the night you left
Not a single call not a single text
No self respect
