

Enough

Glass Tides

You tell me your falling
But it's not me your wanting
Its dragging me under
But your not worth my time
I let it it eat me alive

I've been screaming from inside
Looking for a way to get by
I've let you hold me down for life
Searching for a way to say goodbye
Say goodbye

Alone I'll never sleep
My body rejects all the love you once bestowed
Erase me

Yeah, I'd count my blessings if I reset it
Just cut the cord and set the score
Delete what's embedded
Yuh! Check the board for the score
Check the board for the score
Who's the pawn?

I've been screaming from inside
Looking for a way to get by
I've let you hold me down for life
Searching for a way to say goodbye

I'm tripping over, wearing thin I don't need you in my head
My heart detests me in my skin Now I'm free from all of you!

Yeah, I'd count my blessings if I reset it
Just cut the cord and set the score
Delete what's embedded
Yuh! Check the board for the score
Check the board for the score
Who's the pawn?

I've been screaming from inside
Looking for a way to get by
I've let you hold me down for life
Searching for a way to say goodbye
Say goodbye
