

Fear

Glass Tides

Was it not enough
To let you get the best of me?
Always comes at a cost
I felt it from the start that you dragged me in

I hear nothing but the sound of relief
I feel nothing but deception and fear
I hear nothing but the sound of relief
I feel nothing but deception and fear

Scared of my thoughts but nobody's home
You think that I'm hurt, I feel nothing at all Open me up to see what's inside
You messed it all up so I fall apart

I never wanted to feel wanted but you opened my eyes
And now you're wanted while I'm haunted 'cause the light is so bright
Indecision makes it clearer that you lost what you got
The grass is greener when you've gotten everything that you wan t

I hear nothing but the sound of relief
I feel nothing but deception and fear
I hear nothing but the sound of relief
I feel nothing but deception and fear

I hear nothing but the sound of relief
I feel nothing but deception and fear
I hear nothing but the sound of relief
I feel nothing but deception and fear
