

Forever

Glass Tides

The days are growing shorter
The silence brings us closer
But with you
This just isn't fair

Just take all the pain away
Just leave us for one more day
Just take all the pain away
I'm not ready to say goodbye

I'll stand by you
When you're going under
I'll pull you through
I'll fight for you
When you're going under
I'll pull you through

You're loosing track of feeling
And drifting while you're sleeping
Next to me
But now you're not there

I thought I'd be the one to always pick you up
I've lost the only person that I truly loved
I'll keep thoughts high while I'm praying
Forever just wasn't long enough
