

Insecure

Glass Tides

I've seen, that look, before
It makes me feel, insecure
Repeat, those words, again
It takes me back, to the end

It's haunting cause
You left no choice
I dealt with the mess you made
It broke my heart
To watch it fall apart

I was on my own
Taught myself to stay strong
Taking the pain, I felt every day
I was on my own

You say, you want, a change
Well nothing stays, the same
Don't blame me for your mistakes
Misery is such a waste

It's haunting cause
I dealt with the mess you made
It broke my heart
To watch it fall apart

I was on my own
Taught myself to stay strong
Taking the pain, I felt every day
I was on my own

On my own

I was on my own
Taught myself to stay strong
Taking the pain, I felt every day
I was on my own

I was on my own

I was on my own
