

Over My Head

Glass Tides

I don't mind
Giving you some space I'm Cutting ties
Everything you said I
Realized
I wasn't the problem
Yet I'm giving you all of my time

What's the rush
Maybe for the best we
Give it up
Slow it down but you keep
Speeding up
Try to shift the gears
But when I'm switching it's always stuck

Over my head
You kept me waiting
You're so manipulative
And I don't know why I'm believing
That I need you
More than me

Let it go
I don't wanna hear how
You're alone
Missing what we had
It's all for show
Living for the moment
Don't try calling 'cause no one's home

Over my head
You kept me waiting
You're so manipulative
And I don't know why I'm believing
That I need you
More than me

Over my head
You kept me waiting (kept me waiting)
You're so manipulative (manipulative)
And I don't know why I'm believing
That I need you
More than me

Give it up
You watched me fall
Breaking down
It's all your fault
Give it up
You lost it all
I don't need you around me anymore

Give it up, give it up
You watched me fall
Breaking down, breaking down
It's all your fault

Give it up, give it up
You lost it all
I don't need you around me anymore

Over my head
You kept me waiting
You're so manipulative

Over my head
You kept me waiting (kept me waiting)
You're so manipulative (manipulative)
And I don't know why I'm believing
That I need you
More than me
