

Somebody Else

Glass Tides

Stop and think, how it all should play out
You made a point to become a man now
Expect it all to fall into place
But you can't control the end

Your friends tell you that she's not the one but Easy said, never easy done cause
Hard to see the mistakes you made
When your buried in the mess

I've burnt
Every piece of you that's left in me
I've learnt
People aren't the way they use to be
You give and give it your all
Just to let it go to waste
I've burnt
Every piece of you that's left in me
(Every piece of you that's left in me)
(Every piece of you that's left in me)

I spent my nights wondering what I'd done
It wasn't long before you found someone
You cut me out not a single thought
Now it's messing with my head

Did you really ever care
Didn't matter what I said
You were never there
Now I'm letting go cause

I've burnt
Every piece of you that's left in me
I've learnt
People aren't the way they use to be
You give and give it your all
Just to let it go to waste
I've burnt
Every piece of you that's left in me

It's too late to buy back in
I gave you everything
Don't point the blame at me
I gave you everything

(Every piece of you that's left in me)
(Every piece of you that's left in me)
(Every piece of you that's left in me)
(Every piece of you)

I've burnt
Every piece of you that's left in me
I've learnt
People aren't the way they use to be
You give and give it your all
Just to let it go to waste
I've burnt

Every piece of you that's left in me
(Every piece of you that's left in me)
Every piece of you that's left in me
(Every piece of you that's left in me)
(Every piece of you that's left in me)
Every piece of you that's left in me
