

The Past Is Dead

Glass Tides

Is it me
Have I come to far
Or wasn't it meant to be
Now your back in town
And it's been playing
On my mind it's all the time
You're the one that said goodbye
I moved on and you did too
What's the mould we fit into?

I've been awaiting
For something that might change
I've been escaping
To somewhere I
Somewhere I fit in

You think you can just pick up from where you left it
All the pieces don't quite fit now that you've Changed your mind it all seems fine
Forgot about the cheats and lies
I'm glad to see you such a mess
Cause that was me back when you left

I've been awaiting
For something that might change
I've been escaping
To somewhere I
Somewhere I fit in

Don't tell me you're different
You've shown me you're the same

Don't tell me you're different
You've shown me you're the same

I've been awaiting
For something that might change

I've been awaiting
For something that might change
I've been escaping
To somewhere I
