

Without You

Glass Tides

What do you think about when I'm not there?
Am I good enough to fill a spot inside your head?
Giving up on you was never what I planned
Don't wanna force it
Don't wanna lose it
Don't wanna fall apart
'Cause all I'm thinking's how
We got so far

I'm lost without you
Pressure's building up inside
Nowhere left for me to hide
I'm sinking without you
Fear is creeping in my mind
I can't seem to break free

Hard too see the right without the wrong
Good intentions, happy endings
Never end alone
Am I crazy to believe I was the one?
Hard to see it when I fear it
And I'm twisted up 'cause all I'm thinking's

I'm lost without you
Pressure's building up inside
Nowhere left for me to hide
I'm sinking without you
Fear is creeping in my mind
I can't seem to break free

I'm restless, I'm breaking
The doubt follows me
Heavy breathing
Exhausting the reasons
I need you to keep on believing
Who I am

I'm lost without you
Pressure's building up inside
Nowhere left for me to hide
I'm sinking without you
Fear is creeping in my mind
I can't seem to break free

I'm lost without you
I'm lost without you
Sinking without you
Fear is creeping in my mind
I can't seem to break free
Break free
