

Cruel Moon

Glasvegas

Slipping in,
Under all consciousness,
Homeless is where the heart is,
Walk on by and I'll be fine,
This cardboard cover,
Keeps away the gales of the night,

Cos at some points I think this ain't real,
Some nights I say this shouldn't be me,
It's Christmas eve and I'm out on the street,
With a lifetime to spend it hurts me this truth,
Under this cruel moon,

Slipping,
Under all consciousness,
Homeless is where the heart is,
So walk on by and I'll be fine,
This cardboard cover,
Keeps away the gales of the night,

And I know it's late and you're thinking I'm crazy,
I share the same dreams as you, yesterday,
You think this is a world away,
Beware of darkness because this could be you could someday,,
Under this cruel moon,

And I know it's late and you're thinking I'm crazy,
I shared the same dreams as you, yesterday,
You think this is a world away,
Beware of darkness for this could be you someday,
Under this cruel moon,

For this could be you someday,
Under this cruel moon,
For this could be you someday,
Under this cruel moon,
For this could be you someday,
Under this cruel moon,
