

In My Mirror

Glasvegas

The heart says "yes"
The body says "no"
What the heart wants well the body won't go
A wish is no command when there's no control
It can't get hard
It won't get up anymore

Who's the stranger
Who's the stranger
In my mirror
Who's the stranger
Who's the stranger
In my mirror

Awoken by a wish a prayer to proffer
I welcome with my arms, receiving me softer
All lairs, wealth, aires downstairs just melts
I try it to myself, me and someone else

Who's the stranger
Who's the stranger
In my mirror
Who's the stranger
Who's the stranger
In my mirror
Who's the stranger
Who's the stranger
In my mirror

It's a naked garish chant
It's impossible when you can't
Is this what makes a man?
Wait, there's life it's alive it pulses
Aid blood and mercy for us
All my Elvis and mother Therasas
O'fortuna carmina buranas
Then suddenly a little part of me
Should flatline and disappear
No Elvis no mother Therasas
It's only me in my mirror

It's only me
I'm the stranger
In my mirror
It's only me
I'm the stranger
In my mirror
In my mirror
