(It's Only Your) Imagination

Glen Campbell

Baby, it's only your imagination
That keeps you away from me
Baby, it's only your imagination
That won't let you be what you want to be

Well, it seems that you're always thinkin'
You've got a busy, busy mind
But that wasn't me you saw last night
Your imagination's workin' overtime

Baby, it's only your imagination
That keeps you away from me
Baby, it's only your imagination
That won't let you be what you want to be

I told you that I love you
And you're the only one for me
So don't let your imagination
Run away from reality

Baby, it's only your imagination
That keeps you away from me
Baby, it's only your imagination
That won't let you be what you want to be

Baby, it's only your imagination
That keeps you away from me
Baby, it's only your imagination
That won't let you be what you want to be

Baby, it's only your imagination
That keeps you away from me
Baby, it's only your imagination
That won't let you be what you want to be
