

Please Come to Boston

Glen Campbell

Please come to Boston for the springtime
I'm stayin' with some friends and they've got a lotta room
You can sell your paintings on the sidewalk
In the front of a café here I hope to be workin' soon
Please come to Boston
She said "No. Boy come home to me?"

And she said, "Hey ramblin' boy now won't cha settle down?
Boston ain't your kinda town
There ain't no gold and there ain't nobody like me
I'm the number one fan of the man from Tennessee"

Please come to Denver with the snowfall
We'll move up in the mountains so far that we can't be found
And throw "I love you" echoes down the canyon
And then lie awake at night till they come back around
Please come to Denver
She said "No. Boy, come home to me?"

And she said, "Ramblin' boy why don't cha settle down?
Denver ain't your kinda town
There ain't no gold and there ain't nobody like me
'Cause I'm the number one fan of the man from Tennessee"

Now this old drifter's world goes 'round and 'round
And I doubt that it's ever gonna stop
But of all the dreams I've lost or found
And all that I ain't got
I still cling to Somebody to sing to

Please come to LA to live forever
California life alone just seems too hard to build
I got a house that looks out over the ocean
And there's stars that fell from the sky
Livin' up on the hill
Please come to LA
She just said "No. Boy, won't you come home to me?"
And she said, "Hey ramblin' boy why don't cha settle down?
LA ain't your kinda town
There ain't no gold and there ain't nobody like me
No, no, I'm the number one fan of the man from Tennessee"

"I'm the number one fan of the man from Tennessee"
