Postcard from Paris

Glen Campbell

Dear friend of my mine Weather's fine Today, I saw some ruins Of the Roman world's decline

And I climbed all those Spanish steps You've heard of them no doubt But Rome has lost its glory I don't know what it's about

I wish you were here When the shadows fall And all the rushing traffic's still

I wish you were here When the bells are ringing On the seven hills

I make my way to a small cafe I wonder what you did today Wish you were here

Dear one at home
I just flew in from Rome
And Paris is a postcard
All decked out in color chrome

And so, I climbed the Eiffel Tower And prayed at Notre Dame But I just can't find the romance And I wonder why I came

I wish you were here
On the Champs Elysees
Lovers walk hand in hand

I wish you were here They take one look at me And seem to understand

This city of light is a lovely site The first bright star I see tonight Wish you were here

Now, I write this from the plane Drinking cheap champagne And wondering why Two people got so far apart

I wish you were here Here in London Where the rain the pouring down

I wish you were here On this airplane Headed back to New York Town I'll never leave you alone again
I'm coming home but until then
Wish you were here

I wish you were here Wish you were here
