

Restless

Glen Campbell

Restless as the sea
My heart is restless inside of me
Over and over, [?] repeating your name
I'm restless and alone
Filled with a feeling I've never known
Over and over, telling myself I'm to blame

Why did I wait so long
To tell you how I feel
The moment that we kissed
I should have known it was love
It was real

So restless since you're gone
Stirred by the memories that linger on
Over and over I swear by heaven above
I'll never rest lest you share my life and my love

Oh my love
Oh my love

I'll never rest lest you share my life and my love
